Piano Benefit.

The operetta, King Cole, which was rendered by the graduates and pupils of Emerson high school at the close of the last school term, will be repeated, Saturday evening, October 1, in the Emerson school hall. This entertainment is given for the purpose of securing funds to apply on the payment of the Weber baby grand piano, recently placed in the school hall. This instrument was secured at a considerable cost and is a credit to our school. Graduates and pupils all alike are interested in this beautiful instrument and would all be proud to think they had done something to contribute toward paying its cost. So this entertainment is given for that purpose. At the former production, many people were unable to gain admission to the hall owing to the crowd.

You can secure seats at Kellar's. Reserved seats 75 cents; general admission 50 cents. Buy early and secure good seats for the crowd will be there.

Methodist Episcopal Church.

Regular services will be held in the above church Sunday, September 25th as follows: 10 a. m., Sunday school—the increased attendance and interest reflects credit upon the officers and teachers; 11 a. m., morning service, conducted by the pastor; 7 p. m., Epworth League, B. Grim, president; 8 p. m., evening service.

This is the last service of the conference year. The annual conference of the Arizona Mission will be held at Prescott September 28 to October 2nd Bishop, Luther B. Wilson, presiding. Rev. J. H. Henry, the former Pastor, will take work in Southern California. Rev. D. Roberts, who has been filling out the unexpired term, expects to return to his old charge at Needles, Cal. Rev. S. J. Rogers, Sup't of Mission, who was present last Sunday, looks forward to the coming year as one of the most successful (under its new Pastor) in the history of the Methodist church of Flagstaff.
